Reflection on learning (at end of year)

Priorities for growth for the past year	Learning activities chosen to address this area	Significant lessons learned from these learning activities	Changes you have noticed as a result of your learning this past year
Spiritual formation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Read Spiritual Warfare By Rankin• Find a bible study on spiritual warfare• Read A Hunger for God: Desiring God Through Prayer and Fasting by Piper	Spiritual warfare starts with the evil that is in my own heart. Maintaining spiritual disciplines of prayer, fasting and reading the word are a great catalyst to avoiding spiritual conflict in my own life. Felt like not enough attention was paid to understanding the passages on angels (like in Daniel 10) and other areas of warfare I want to better understand.	It has only been one month, but I have already noticed the correlation between lax bible reading/prayer and the rise of temptation and discouragement.
