Books

- Ministering in Honor-Shame Cultures, by Jayson Georges. Andy Spradley recommends it, saying, "I liked the section on showing the honor-shame element in Scripture and the gospel, as well as insights on the honor-shame mindset in general and how we might tailor our ministry approaches to be more effective."
- The 3D Gospel: Ministry in Guilt, Shame and Fear Cultures by Jayson Georges > Recommended by Gerald Haupt. "It's a small, but very helpful book, easy to read which gives insights into how our identity, worldview and ethics is marked by our cultural background and how this influences our thinking, feeling and decision making. It shows how to share the gospel with people from different cultural backgrounds."
- The Messenger, the Message and the Community by Roland Muller. The middle section on "The Message" is studied in MOP online and deals with honor-shame based cultures, as well as fear-based and guilt-based cultures.
 - See Ideas for Bible Studies in light of Roland Muller's common ancestral worldviews > by Gary Ridley

Other Resources
